A right royal Diamond Jubilee celebration!

Liz and John Hall and their followers making their splendid entrance to Chaldon's Jubilee Picnic dressed as the 'King and Queen of Chalvedune'.

A rare visit by the 'King and Queen of Chalvedune' marked the Queen's Diamond Jubilee in Chaldon on Tuesday 5th June. The royal couple (played by Liz and John Hall) made a grand entrance to Handel's 'Arrival of the Queen of Sheba' then took their seats attended by Princesses Chloe and Georgia Myers. The Jubilee Picnic then got underway with games and competitions, but by the time the live entertainment started the rain had arrived. However, the shows by the Charisma singing group and young dancers from The Arc went on undeterred. The rain had miraculously stayed away for the previous day's events which included the lighting of the Jubilee Beacon and firework display on Westway Common in Caterham. Hundreds of people attended the free event organised by Caterham Festival Chairman, Andy Parr, to mark the special occasion. Following the lighting of the beacon Andy said: "I didn't expect so many people to turn up this evening. It's fantastic. I'm absolutely delighted!" The Diamond Jubilee celebrations came in the middle of the Caterham Festival programme of events ensuring there was never a dull moment for local residents during June! To see more photos of this year's Caterham Festival events and to see further coverage of the many local Diamond Jubilee events, turn to our eight-page souvenir special starting on page 11.

Get set to cheer on local Olympic torchbearer, Amy Earl.

15 year-old Amy Earl from Chaldon is counting the days to what will surely be one of the most memorable days of her life. Amy has been selected to be one of the torchbearers when the Olympic flame comes to Godstone on Friday 20th July.

The Year 11 student who attends Caterham School decided to apply to be a torchbearer when she heard on the news that the organisers were looking for suitable candidates.

"I decided to give it a try because I am involved with lots of different things so I thought I might be selected if I was lucky," said Amy. "When I heard that I had been selected my friends were even more excited about it than me - they all want to have their photograph taken with me and the torch! Our headmaster has already asked me to take it into school afterwards to show everyone."

Amy, who loves dance and drama and teaches street dance to the younger pupils, dreams of going to the London College of Fashion after school. In less than a month she will be one of four torchbearers running along the route from Godstone Fire Station to Godstone Green. The torch will arrive at 1.42pm but Amy does not yet know which stretch of the route she will be running, but there are sure to be plenty of supporters to cheer her on.

A fresh start for The Village Inn

The Village Inn in Coulsdon Road, Caterham-on-the-Hill, is making a fresh start following the review of its license on Monday, 18th June to tackle the crime and anti-social behaviour associated with the pub in recent years. The new restrictions on the license mean that drinks will not be served after 11pm, seven days a week; the pub must display 'Zero Tolerance Drugs Policy' signs; there must be hourly searches of the toilets to check for drug misuse and a license holder must be on the premises at all times during trading hours.

The review also stated that CCTV should be installed, which Steve Kirk, the owner of the pub has already done. Steve also introduced an 'Over 21s only' policy after 6pm (except for families in the restaurant) on 1st May and has even made it a 'footie-free zone' to attract new customers who do not want to watch the screening of football matches while they are out for a drink. Steve Kirk and his three business partners have spent

£50,000 on transforming the pub and restaurant, which now has a new menu and a popular carvery on Sundays. Steve said: "The license review was nerve-wracking but now it is over I am the most excited I have been in seven years here. We know the food is some of the best around and we have been getting such good comments from our customers. We hope word will soon get round that things have completely changed here and people will come in to see the place."

CATERHAM CARS SHOWROOM - LATEST NEWS

Oyez, Oyez for the Kenley Airfield Heritage Day!

Caterham Town Crier, Sonia Hunt mingled with RAF veterans and performed the official opening of the Kenley Airfield Heritage Day on Sunday, 24th June.

The Kenley Airfield Friends Group in collaboration with RAFA (Royal Air Forces Association) Kenley & Caterham and 450 Squadron Air Training Corps organised the event at the historic airfield. Visitors were taken on guided walks, viewed WWII artefacts outside the Portcullis Club and had a look around the various stalls and display of military vehicles. A barbecue, Pimms tent and a home-made cake stall ensured there were plenty of refreshments to enjoy and some lucky visitors left with prizes they had won in the raffle.

Visitors also had the opportunity to meet members of Kenley Gliding Club and take a look inside the gliders, much to the delight of 10 year-old Joseph Parker from Essex (pictured right).

Diary of a plantaholic

by Sue Baines

What an unpredictable few weeks it's been, we've certainly been having some weather! The heat-wave was very time consuming, and I refrained from planting until the weather changed. It's been quite a rush to plant in between the wind and the rain, which has encouraged lush leafy growth. This has been removed as much as possible, to give more room, and stop the leaves falling onto the new plants, which now need as much light as they can get. It's amazing just how many slugs and snails they give cover to, so protection against them is vital.

I have been keeping an eye on my Hydrangeas, many of which are in large pots. Flowers are now visible and there appears to be a few more than last year. I have started to feed them with diluted tomato fertiliser and put on the Hydrangea colourant. This will change the flowers to various shades of blue or mauve. It is more controllable in pots, but if you usually have pink flowers, and garden on alkaline (chalky) soil, and want blue flowers, now is the time to start sprinkling it on the soil around the plant. White flowers will remain unchanged.

The lillies have sailed through despite the weather; however with the sun came the lilly beetles. These need to be dealt with pretty quickly, as not only do they eat the leaves, their offspring completely decimate the plants, leaving a foul slimy mess. Provado spray should work but as soon as I see the orange beetle, I make it my mission to hunt them out, and destroy them - by hand!

Pamela retires after 28 years' dedication to helping local businesses

Caterham resident, Pamela Windsor, has retired from her role as secretary to the Caterham Business Partnership after a remarkable 28 years' service, having taken on the role at what was then the Chamber of Trade in 1984.

We apologise to Pamela and our readers for printing '18 years' service' in error in last month's article and wish Pamela every happiness in her retirement.

Pamela Windsor.

Keep business cash flowing with Astre Credit Control

Due to the recession, many business owners are working longer hours which means they have little time to spare to keep a tight reign on their cash flow. Astre Credit Control Solutions is a local business that can help ease the strain by managing their credit control for them.

The founder members Maxine Cook and Ravie Murtza wanted to get back to the essence of real credit control at its best, stripping away old processes and targets and creating good customer relationships instead. Maxine said: "We are aware that in today's climate businesses can struggle with a growing backlog of debt whilst trying to meet their own costs. We can step in at very short notice to help tackle the ledger and blitz outstanding debts to create a fast injection of cash. We also help businesses ensure they have correct procedures in place that make for better credit control in the long term."

Double win for Ryan at OAC Euro 2012 Tournament

13 year-old Ryan Ramus from Coulsdon enjoyed a double celebration on Friday 22nd June. His team, Russia, won the Oasis Academy Coulsdon six-a-side Euro 2012 Tournament and Ryan was also presented with the tournament 'Golden Boot' as top goal scorer with 8 goals to his name.

England Under 19 International and Chelsea Youth Academy Goalkeeper, Jamal Blackman, presented Ryan with the Golden Boot trophy at the end of the thrilling week-long football competition at the Academy. On the last day of the tournament, Russia faced fierce competition in their semi-final against Italy which they won 2-0 and then faced one of the tournament favourites, Greece, in the final. It was a close match with both sides producing great passes and forcing some amazing saves from the goalkeepers at both ends of the pitch. In the final 2 minutes a stunning shot from Moses McKenzie secured the Championship for a jubilant Russia.

Team Manager, Michael Eglon said: "All our players were amazing and showed great determination and skill. Tamah Gayle, in particular showed great team spirit and good defensive play. As winner of the Golden Boot Award, Ryan of course was outstanding."

All team members were presented with medals and the Academy Euro 2012 Trophy by Jamal Blackman, who spent two hours at the Academy, talking to students, signing autographs and giving football advice.

Head of PE, Niall Attenborough said: "We are very grateful to Jamal for finding time in his busy schedule to support our tournament. The students were thrilled to meet him."

The Warlingham Fair 2012

Morris Men, a free-flying birds display, a football tournament and a dance performance by local schoolchildren were amongst the attractions at the annual Warlingham Fair held at the Blanchman's Farm Nature Reserve on Saturday 16th June.

The event was a great success, despite the constant threat of rain which luckily held off for most of the day!

DeFest - 26th & 27th June

The Caterham Festival kicked off on 26th and 27th May with DeFest at de Stafford School in Caterham. The two day music event was blessed with sunshine this year, much to the relief of the organisers. Day one featured local rock bands and soloists, many of them performing live for the first time in front of their delighted fans. Day two had a forties theme starting with a classic car cruise around Caterham followed by live swing music and dance - perfect for a sunny Sunday afternoon!

Caterham Festival Street Party Sunday 3rd June

Thousands of people attended the Caterham Festival Street Party again this year, despite all the Diamond Jubilee events happening on the same day, including the Pageant on the River Thames.

Although chilly and cloudy, the rain held off for most of the afternoon, allowing the live entertainment to go ahead as scheduled in the six music areas.

The Big Picnic along the road in Town End Recreation Ground preceded the Street Party, so local residents could celebrate the Diamond Jubilee and attend the Street Party on the same day. Those Festival organisers thought of everything!

Diamond Jubilee Célébration

June 2012

An estimated 4,000 people took part in the Queen's Jubilee Picnic on Waringham's School Common on 4th June, with more than 1,000 people taking part in a diamond shaped mass photograph. To order prints of the photo at just £5 each call 01883 623025..

On Tuesday 5th June the Mayor of Croydon Eddy Arram and Cllr. Chris Wright unveiled the road sign for Jubilee Way, the previously unnamed road that crosses Bradmore Green in Old Coulsdon. The unveiling took place on the day of the Giant Picnic held in Grange Park. The Mayor also planted a commemorative Oak tree before mingling with the crowd and joining in the celebrations. On the same day a plaque was unveiled next to a Horse Chestnut tree on Bradmore Green that was planted in 1897 for Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee. Photo by Nigel Rea.

Here are photos of just some of the many local events that took place to celebrate the Queen's Diamond Jubilee. While the grand celebrations were taking place in London, local communities each marked the occasion in their own special way...

St. Mary's Church in Caterham was packed for a special Jubilee Classical Concert on Monday 4th June. The concert in aid of the Tandridge Community Fund featured a programme of British Music performed by the orchestra of St. Paul's Church in Covent Garden, local flautist Julie Groves and young violinist Phoebe Goddard. Sonia Hunt attended by Evie May came dressed as Britannia to add to the sense of occasion. After waving Union flags to a rousing finale of Land of Hope and Glory many of the audience went on to the lighting of the Jubilee Beacon and firework display at Westway Common. Photo by Noel Shay.

The signature event in Whyteleafe was the planting of a Cherry tree and unveiling of a commemorative plaque in the village's community garden, attended by the Chairman of Tandridge District Council, Sakina Bradbury. Whyteleafe also held 'Best Dressed Shop' and 'Best Dressed House' competitions and a Junior Art Competition that attracted 85 entries. A special lunch was held in the Whyteleafe Tavern for local residents born before 1953.

There was a right royal occasion in the Six Brothers Field in Chaldon on Tuesday 5th June when the King and Queen of Chalvedune attended the Jubilee Picnic. The parts were played by Liz and John Hall who made a grand entrance to Handel's Arrival of the Queen of Sheba then took their seats attended by Princesses Chloe and Georgia Myers. During the programme of games and competitions black clouds loomed and the young singing group 'Charisma's' cheerfully donned wellies and umbrellas for their live performance in the pouring rain!

Caterham Festival Chairman, Andy Parr, practises some Zumba moves.

This year's Caterham Carnival on Westway Common featured impressive fire stunts by Joseph Pearce as the main arena act (see top photo). The proceeds from this year's event are being shared between Caterham District Guides, the 12th Caterham Scout Group, Whyteleafe Tennis Club and Ridge Radio. The amount raised will be announced at the Carnival Committee's AGM in September.

The Food Festival in Croydon Road was a great success, helped greatly by the rain holding off for most of the day. Shoppers were entertained by live music while stallholders from all over Europe sold hot and cold foods of all description as well as local crafts. Many of the shops in Croydon Road opened to take advantage of the crowds and Caterham Valley had a truly Continental feel for the day!

Over 40 riders took part in Caterham Round Table's gruelling 0.31 mile long, 210 ft climb of the Waller Lane hill in Caterham on Sunday 10th June. Kingston Wheelers rider, John Storms, was the fastest man with a very impressive time of 1:17 to take the 'King of the Hill' title.

Gem Atkinson (Rapha Condor) was the fastest lady with a time of 1:59. Everyone who stayed for the prize giving agreed what a superb event this had been, once again, and is looking forward to taking part again next year. Full details of all the results can be found at www.caterhamtable.com

A Midsummer Night's Dream

Open Caterham

On 21st-23rd June Queen's Park provided the unusual backdrop for Shakespeare's 'A Midsummer Night's Dream' by the Another Way Theatre Company. The afternoon and evening performances attracted large audiences, many of them children, enchanted to see their playground hosting such a colourful event which was a true highlight of this year's Caterham Festival.

The Open Caterham weekend on 16th and 17th June saw many local venues putting on special events to raise their profile and celebrate the Caterham Festival. Sports clubs including the Caterham Bowls Club (pictured right) held taster sessions for the public and there was even an archaeological dig in Queen's Park which unearthed a piece of Roman pottery!

A vintage cart, recently renovated by Caterham Scouts had its first outing when it formed one of the eye-catching exhibits at the St. John's Church Flower Festival.

Eating Out

A fabulous new bar and new look for ID

Review by Julia Church

My friend Jill and I recently spent a lovely evening in the newly extended and refurbished ID Chinese restaurant at 55 Croydon Road, Caterham Valley. The owners, Kenny and Michelle Lam, have doubled the size of the premises and now have a sophisticated bar adjacent to the dining area.

The new bar is for anyone who would like to have a relaxing drink in smart, stylish surroundings. There is no obligation to dine in the restaurant although it also provides the perfect place for diners to meet up before going through for their meal. The restaurant has attracted a great many regular customers since opening in Caterham eight years ago. During our visit I was delighted to see an old friend of mine and her husband who had moved to Yorkshire a few years ago. She said they always look forward to dining at ID on their visits back to Caterham. After ordering a bottle of house Chardonnay, Jill and I browsed the extensive menu. Alongside the seafood, poultry and meat dishes there were Sizzling Dishes and Special Delicacies to choose from and the menu also offered Special Set Meals.

For our starters we chose Fried Fresh Mushrooms with Chopped Garlic and Fried Crispy Shredded Duck with Peppercorn Salt. The mushrooms came coated in sesame seeds and were beautifully succulent. Jill commented on the delicious combination of the duck and the peppercorn salt.

"This kind of food is addictive!" she said. We chose Sliced Lamb in Satay Sauce from the Sizzling Dishes, King Prawn with Spring Onion and Ginger, Singapore Rice Noodles and Fried Mixed Vegetables to share for our main course. As anticipated, they were just as beautifully cooked and delicious as our starters.

"This is absolutely gorgeous," said Jill. "Just when you think you are full you realise you can eat a bit more!" We could see why ID has gained such a good reputation. The ambience, service and food were excellent and although the restaurant was full, there was plenty of space to dine comfortably which all goes to ensure a wonderfully relaxing evening. Our Irish coffees at the end of the meal were the perfect finishing touch! On Wednesday Banqueting Nights diners can choose a selection of dishes from their special menu for just £11 representing great value. Be sure to book a table first! Call 01883 345491.

'Smile at Home' - An Alladin's Cave in the heart of Caterham

'Smile at Home' at 221 Croydon Road, Caterham Valley, is a treasure trove of gorgeous items for your home. The fascinating shop is overflowing with beautiful pieces of vintage furniture including dining tables, chairs, stools, cabinets and even chaise longues. A choice of 90 mirrors is always in stock and there is a catalogue available to order from in the shop. The owner of Smile at Home, Sabrina Lock says: "The large number of items we have here can be a bit overwhelming when people first come to visit us but if they cannot see what they are looking for we can usually find it for them."

In addition to vintage items the shop sells new lamps, pictures, lanterns, jugs, clocks and other quirky bits and pieces to mix in with old, pre-loved things. Painted furniture is in abundance and Sabrina offers a bespoke painting service for customers who want to give their old furniture a new lease of life. Sabrina also sells Autentico Chalk Paint which she says has been flying off the shelves.

"Autentico is wonderful paint and very popular because it is so easy to use," says Sabrina.

"Furniture needs minimal preparation before giving it a coat of Autentico, then it goes on like butter. We have a great range of colours in stock and testers available."

Smile at Home offers free advice to help customers with decluttering, sourcing the perfect pieces and creating an individual look.

Sabrina is holding a special Pimms day on Saturday 7th July between 10am-5pm so you can pop in, have a browse and discuss homestyle ideas over a glass of Pimms! Parking is readily available outside the shop.

Smile at Home supports the Smile Malawi charity no. 1106225.

New chairman for Warlingham Parish Council

Local Rotarian Phil Flower has been unanimously elected as the new Chairman of Warlingham Parish Council.

After being elected on Wednesday 9th May, Cllr Flower thanked outgoing Chairman Richard Mascall and all the other retiring councillors for their hard work and promised to build upon their achievements.

A well-known member of Caterham Rotary Club, Cllr Flower is involved in many local good causes, and has promised to reach out to all sections of the community and to fully engage the Warlingham Parish Council in developing a safe, vibrant and sustainable future for the village.

Long serving Tandridge Dis-

trict Councillor Glynis Whittle was also elected as Vice Chairman, and expressed her delight at reprising the role she first held when Warlingham Parish Council was re-founded back in 2000.
