Caterham Cars say farewell to Caterham

Caterham Cars, the iconic brand that has been in Caterham since its creation in 1957, is leaving town. The showroom has to relocate by the end of February to make way for a development of 35 sheltered flats and a limited number of retail units.

In December Tandridge District Council turned down a planning application by Churchill Retirement Homes to build the new flats and shops. However, last month the Planning Inspectorate upheld Churchill's appeal and gave the go-ahead for the development.

The site is being sold to Churchill Retirement Homes by Simon Nearn, the son of the late Graham Nearn who founded Caterham Cars.

The Nearn family sold the business in 2005 but ownership of the land where the showroom and workshop is located passed to Simon Nearn who now lives in Australia.

Before it relocates to a much larger facility not far from Caterham, the showroom will move into a temporary home, details of which will be announced in due course.

Graham Macdonald, Chief Executive of Caterham Cars, said: "It is with great sadness and regret that Caterham Cars will leave its spiritual home. It is not a decision that the company wanted to take but, rather, one in which its hands have been tied.

"Our brand proudly takes its very name from the town in which it was founded by the Nearn family and it is particularly poignant that, just as Caterham Cars begins an exciting new chapter in its history, it is moving away.

The Caterham Cars showroom in Station Avenue, Caterham.

"I would like to thank the town of Caterham and its residents for their unstinting support over the last 56 years."

Last November Caterham Cars announced a joint venture with Renault to develop and build Caterham's first brand new road model for 17 years and revive Renault's historic Alpine badge.

Following the decision by the Planning Inspectorate, Andrew Burgess of Churchill Retirement Homes said: "We are clearly delighted with the appeal decision and that the Inspector accepted all of our arguments and found that there were no concerns regarding loss of employment land and that there was not an unacceptable concentration of accommodation for the elderly. This is a convincing win for Churchill Retirement Living. We will be starting construction as soon as possible and the development will be completed by May 2014."

Surrey County Councillor for Caterham Valley, Sally Marks, was not so delighted with the decision. She said: "I feel the decision by the Planning Inspectorate was outrageous. It is another example of unelected bodies thinking they know better than local people. Why is it right for old people to be dumped by the railway line? It flies in the face of 'localism' and I think it is really sad."

Potential schemes for the Rose & Young site go on show

On Monday 14th and Tuesday 15th January, the Soper Hall in Harestone Valley Road, Caterham, was the venue for an exhibition showcasing four possible schemes for the derelict Rose & Young site in Croydon Road. At the exhibition local residents had the opportunity to make their views known to representatives of urban designers Kember Lowdon Williams (KLW) and architects, OSP before the submission of a planning application by the owner of the site this spring. Following the exhibition, Julian Black of Kember Lowdon Williams said: "We are very pleased that over 200 people attended the exhibition, which was about getting a handle on what local people want. We now need to produce a scheme that works commercially. It is a superb site for both retail and residential elements." Local businessman, Andrew Browne said: "I am sceptical that there is any real intention by the owner to develop the site soon. I think this is just a tactic to try and stop any attempt by Tandridge District Council to use a Compulsory Purchase Order to redevelop the site."

New Year, New Community Library for Warlingham!

A new chapter in the life of Warlingham Library started on Tuesday 22nd January when it opened its doors as a 'Community Library' run jointly by Warlingham Parish Council and Surrey County Council.

Warlingham Parish Council (WPC) believes that the library is a very important asset for Warlingham so has worked hard with the support group to establish a viable future for the library. WPC conducted a survey of residents that revealed a significant majority were prepared to pay a small additional increase on their Council Tax to fund a trained librarian to be on site together with volunteers. Over 93% of residents responding to the survey were in favour of the proposals.

The volunteers will be coordinated by Gina Caunt, the Parish Clerk. Volunteers have been attending training sessions in the core duties but will also be able to offer their services for activities that are of particular interest to them, such as the popular 'Rhyme Time'. As well as helping to run the library, the Parish Council wants to extend the use of the building so that it becomes a real community hub for Warlingham and will be letting it out for community activities such as meetings at times when not operating as a library. A brief opening ceremony conducted by Parish Council Chairman, Phil Flower, was held on the evening of Saturday 19th January followed by a reception to thank all involved in the setting up of the Community Library and the volunteers. The library will be open on Tuesdays, Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays with a short break for lunch.

Croydon Road traders bid a fond farewell to popular street-cleaner

On Friday 1st February, street cleaner, Peter Goodger, will be sweeping the Croydon Road pavements for the last time before settling down to enjoy his retirement.

Peter, who has lived in Caterham for 25 years, has been working in Caterham Valley since starting in May 2005 and says he has loved it.

He said: "Caterham is a really friendly place and I have seen different people and businesses come and go over the last few years. In a way I am sorry to be stopping but it will be nice not to have to rush to get to work on time. I am looking forward to tinkering with my car and getting out to do some gardening." Togz Ali, the owner of Bib & Tucker Dry Cleaners said: "Peter is a very nice guy and the town will miss him. He is the best road sweeper in England!"

Chaldon youngster honoured with the Diana Award

15 year old Madeline Castrey from Chaldon has received the Diana Award for being a Diana Champion Fundraiser in the local community. Madeline has put on a number of musical concerts with singing group 'Charisma' as well as producing a Christmas single, 'Shooting Star', raising over £8,400 for the Shooting Star CHASE hospice.

Madeline Castrey.

The Diana Award was established in 1999 as a lasting legacy to Diana, Princess of Wales. The award exists to celebrate young people who support others and strive to improve their communities.

Madeline will now join the Diana Network, a programme offering young people the opportunity to volunteer and gain valuable life skills.

Speaking after the announcement, East Surrey MP, Sam Gyimah said: "Congratulations to Madeline on being honoured with this well deserved award. Her tireless and creative fundraising efforts have resulted in an impressive contribution to the Shooting Star CHASE hospice.

"The Diana Award is a wonderful way of celebrating the immense contribution that some young people make to their local communities."

Chaldon Ward Councillor Patrick Cannon said:

"I'm very pleased and proud of her for all her dedication in raising such a significant sum for a truly worthy cause. She is fully deserving of receiving this meritorious award."

Commenting on the award Madeline, who attends Dunottar School in Reigate, said: "My mum told me I had won the award after I came out of an exam at school. I had a bad headache but felt much better when I heard the news - it really made my day! I'm looking forward to continuing to raise funds for the hospice together with the other members of 'Charisma'.

Council seeks information about people connected with St Lawrence's Hospital

Names are needed for new roads being created as part of the new development at the former Oaklands House site in Coulsdon Road, Caterham. Oaklands House was part of Saint Lawrence's Hospital, Caterham on the Hill, which opened in 1870 as Caterham Asylum and closed in 1994.

Local councillors would like to keep part of the history of the site by naming some of the new roads after people who either worked or were patients at the hospital over its long history.

Before the Council can go ahead with this, it needs to try to contact the relatives or their legal estates for permission to use their names for the roads. The Council is interested in hearing from anyone with information about the following people:

- PETER SYLVESTER: Final Chairman and Medical Administrator of St Lawrence's Hospital
- GEORGE S ELLIOTT: Medical Superintendent 1880s
- JAMES ADAM: First Medical Superintendent until 1879
- SAMUEL GIBSON: One of the last survivors of the Battle of Waterloo, later a patient at St Lawrence's
- DOREEN FIRMIN: First woman Physician Superintendent, 1951-1959. Her name was given to the Doreen Firmin Training Centre, which is now the Clifton Hill School
- BARRY RICHARDS: Editor of medical journal Mental Deficiency Research, who worked at the hospital in the 1970s
- EMMA MOSELY: First Matron in 1870
- DIANA COURTAZZI: St Lawrence's Principal Psychologist, 1970s

If you have any information about these people, please contact the Street Naming and Numbering Officer on 01883 732780, or e-mail

In the spotlight

This month we feature local resident, Jenny Green. Jenny is a professional jazz singer and hosts a show on Ridge Radio every Friday from 11am-1pm. Jenny's website can be viewed at www.jennygreensings.com

Jenny Green.

Birthplace:
Shoreham-by-Sea, Sussex.

Marital Status:
Married now for 30 years so I must be doing something right.

Children:
Two beautiful daughters.

Cars:
A Renault Clio.

Childhood hero:
David Cassidy.

Favourite Food & Drink:
Macaroni cheese washed down with a nice glass of Shiraz.

Pastimes:
Anything that involves music, listening or performing. A nice long country walk or swim, and gardening.

Likes:
Learning new songs and waking up to hear the birds singing.

Dislikes:
Rude drivers, especially bus drivers!

Favourite TV show:
Dr Who.

Favourite books:
I used to love reading the Famous Five books when I was young.

Who would you most like to throw a custard pie at?
Gordon Ramsey - he's rude!

Favourite song of all time:
'What a Wonderful World' by Louis Armstrong.

Biggest influence on your life: My husband.

Favourite holiday destination:
Kefelonia in Greece.

Proudest moment:
Apart from the birth of my daughters, winning a national Singing Championship at The Brighton Centre in front of my mum and thousands of people.

Most embarrassing moment: When I fell over, flat on the floor beneath the feet of a certain famous trumpet player!

Where would you most like to live? I'd love to live in Normandy, France.

Who would you most like to meet?
I'd love to meet Michael Buble but if I did I'd get tongue tied.

If you won the Lottery jackpot, how would you spend it?
I would invest in a music business because as a family it is something we are all interested in. I would employ a piano player to play for me every day on a grand piano.

Welcome to The Drawing Room

Watercolour and drawing classes for adults have arrived in Woldingham. Last September Tracey Bengeyfield started 'Welcome to the Drawing Room' with the aim of bringing fun and accessible drawing classes to the local community.

After gaining her degree in Graphics and Media at the London College of Printing, Tracey went on to work in a graphic design agency for two years before moving into teaching secondary and sixth form students. Last year, after nearly 14 years, she decided to go it alone and fulfil a lifelong ambition of running her own business. Tracey said: "I had the idea of trying to make the classes more informal than those offered in adult education centres as I hoped this would put my students at ease. I really wanted to offer a unique experience not just a lesson, so complimentary tea, coffee and cake are served in fine china teacups, with silver cake stand, sugar tongs and doilies. It's my small homage to the days of the Edwardian drawing room!

"I believe that with support you can really improve, even if you find drawing and painting a challenge. All you need is to approach it with a joy and enthusiasm."

January saw the group move to Woldingham Village Club where the elegant yet cosy surroundings have added to the welcoming ambience. Classes are on Wednesday and Thursday mornings from 10am until noon. Bookings are for a minimum of a half term (usually six weeks) or a full term (12 weeks). The next available start dates are the 27th or 28th February and new members need to book in advance.

Classes are also available to purchase as gifts and are perfect for birthdays, anniversaries or even Valentine's.

For more information go to www.WelcometotheDrawingRoom.com or e-mail Tracey at info@WelcometotheDrawingRoom.com

Diary of a Plantaholic

by Sue Baines

Armchair gardening has taken precedence so far this year. I am planning on opening the garden in late August, and early June, and so it is time to peruse the catalogues. I have a voucher for £100 worth of seeds each year (my prize for being Garden News Gardener of the Year 2011). It has proved really useful this year, as with all the rain a lot of the most reliable seeds never even ripened, and I am sure that some that have been collected will not be viable.

Last year I was preparing for drought tolerant plants, and more than a tad worried how I would manage through the long, hot dry summer! So the best advice I can give is just to go for what you like, but do compare catalogues, many offer the easiest of plants at quite expensive rates, and vice versa. Also, if you have tried unsuccessfully to grow something, try again.

Sue Baines.

I never accept defeat until something has failed for three years.

A lot of the spring bulbs are quite well up now. They were planted last October, but I have my eye on the late flowering summer bulbs that will fill any gaps. Some of my favourites are Eucomis, Galtonia and Crocosmia-Star of the East, and Emily McKenzie. I love the orange with the gentian blue Commelina which I grow from seed, as they are gorgeous with everything, but they are available in catalogues too.

Ah well, back to the present...Snowdrops are almost out, the light is better, and I'm just going to have a little look outside, I may be some time!

Get hooked on fishing at Simply Coarse Angling

Caterham-on-the-Hill is well-known locally for its large number of 'specialist' shops which now includes 'Simply Coarse Angling' in Chaldon Road by the Raglan Precinct. The shop is owned by Wayne Gainsborough and his wife Lisa.

Wayne said: "My main passion is fishing for carp and catfish. There is no better feeling than when you get that target fish you have been after! It has long been my dream to open my own angling shop."

Simply Coarse Angling has an impressive array of all the top angling brands such as Fox, Nash, Korda, Shimano, Diawa, the Pure Fishing range, Trakker, Preston and Gardner and live and frozen baits. The spacious shop also stocks luggage, clothing, boots and fishing furniture such as bed-chairs, bivvies and shelters. It caters for beginners as well as experienced fishermen and there is always someone available to offer friendly advice.

Wayne said: "We cater for all types of fishing - carp, coarse, sea, match, predator and specimen. Our new e-commerce website will also include fly-fishing, the one thing we do not have in store."

Lisa said: "We are delighted that the shop has been very popular with the local kids. There are loads of youngsters around here who love fishing, so we are hoping to start kids' fishing competitions in the summer."

The shop opens early and closes late so that customers can pop in before or after going fishing.

For opening hours see their advertisement below.

What's On

Munch with Music

'Munch with Music' resumes on Wednesday February 6th at St. John's Church in Clareville Road, Caterham Valley. Coffee will be provided at 12.15pm and the performance, this month by classical guitarist Stephen Reck, is from 12.45 - 1.30pm.

Coffee Morning

Caterham Methodist Church in Coulsdon Road, Caterham-on-the-Hill is holding a coffee morning and table-top/cake sale from 10am-12pm on Saturday 9th February. All proceeds will be going to the disabled children's charity 'Whizz-Kidz'.

RSPB Talk

At 8pm on Wednesday 13th February, East Surrey RSPB are presenting a talk entitled: 'South to Antarctica' by John Lawrence at The White Hart Barn in Godstone. John will be speaking about a 'twice' in a lifetime trip to the Antarctic peninsula via the Falkland Islands and South Georgia.

The fee is £3 for adults and £1 for children. All are welcome.

For more information visit the website at www.eastsurreyspb.co.uk

Darts Competition

The Caterham Pumas football club are holding a fundraising Darts Competition at the Royal British Legion and Ex-Servicemen's Club in Townend, Caterham-on-the-Hill on Sunday 17th February from 7pm. Teams of five are invited to take part. The entry fee is £20 per team. There will be trophies for the winners and there is a licensed bar and complimentary nibbles. For more information call Kevin Savage on 07931 188939.

Find love at The Arc this Valentine's.

On Thursday 14th February many couples will be celebrating Valentine's Day with some good, old-fashioned romance - sending flowers, exchanging cards and gifts and maybe going out for a romantic meal. It is also the day when singles can send an anonymous Valentine's card to someone they secretly admire!

cial event taking place on Valentine's night for singles who don't want to spend the evening curled up in front of the telly. For those who usually ignore the swooning and card-sending that goes on in mid-February, The Arc in Caterham-on-the-Hill is hosting its first singles disco to coincide with Valentine's Day.

This year, however, sees a spe-

"The event is being geared mainly to the 20s to 40s age group who are single and looking for love or friendship. We realised that there isn't really a singles scene in Caterham so we thought we would do something about it! If the event proves to be popular we hope to expand on what is offered and hold regular singles events."

The evening is being held on Thursday 14th February starting at 8pm, is open until midnight and a fully licensed bar will be serving drinks, cocktails and bar snacks throughout. A ticket costs just £5.00.

Who wants to be a Volunteer?

by Rosemary Banks

The Christmas decorations were still up in the town when the shops began to hawk the symbols of love, hearts, red roses, chocolate and for some unfathomable reason teddy bears! I have just heard on Radio 4 that people are now offering Proposal Planning! Really whatever next! I ask you, would you have given a different answer had the question been popped in a different way? Maybe, if Gary Chapman - the author of 'The Five Love Languages' is right. Gary says that although we may enjoy all of the 'Love Languages' (Physical Touch, Acts of Service, Words of Affirmation, Quality Time, Gifts) sometimes things go wrong in a potential relationship because, for instance, one party expresses love through Acts of Service while the partner longs for Quality Time. All the Valentine stuff seems to be catering to those who want Gifts.

Are you wondering what this has to do with volunteering? Like all relationships volunteering should be a positive experience for the volunteer and the organisation with whom they work. By entering your details at www.do-it.org.uk and expressing your skills and preferences you can take the first steps to making a Perfect Match. The opportunities you select arrive on the desk of the Volunteer Manager and we, acting like a broker, help you to refine your choice before making a referral to the organisation. There are opportunities that involve Physical Touch, Acts of Service, Words of Affirmation, Quality Time and all enable you to give the Gift of your time and skill and make new and interesting relationships. So this Valentine's Day think about giving something different and volunteer.

Brian Car Sounds - the one-stop shop for the car enthusiast

Anyone with a love of cars, music and in-car entertainment will be fascinated by the range of products available at Brian Car Sounds in Brighton Road, Coulsdon. This family business is run by Brian Steer, who has worked in car audio for 35 years, and his son Brian Jnr. The pair share a wealth of expertise in car audio, vehicle security and in-car multi-media such as screens, radio, DAB and Ipod and USB connections. Brian Jnr. said: "Car audio is only part of what we do. We can do installations that are personalised according to the customer's needs - for example we can put a workbench and power supply into the back of a builder's van for him. We have customers of all ages, both men and women, coming in to buy some sort of thing for their cars."

In-car entertainment is hugely popular and Brian Car Sounds sell a range of flip-out and double-din-screens for DVDs and/or satellite navigation. They also sell roofmount or head-rest screens for children's entertainment in the rear of the car as well as games consoles.

Brian Snr. said: "We can do a lot of modifications to vehicles for our customers. People who have a great sound system at home can have the same in their car by buying the right product and getting the best advice. We can create the music in your car just how the artist intended it to sound."

Parking is easy, right outside the shop but their products can also be purchased at www.briancar-sounds.com

Eating Out

Try some exotic Persian cuisine at 'Little Paradise'

Review by Julia Church

The residents of Caterham have been spoilt for choice when dining out, with a great variety of restaurants serving food to suit all tastes, from traditional Sunday roasts to spicy curries. Last month the choice was extended to include Persian cuisine with the opening of 'Little Paradise' at 66 Croydon Road. I feel we are quite privileged - not every small town has an exotic Persian restaurant in their town centre!

Little Paradise is the first Persian restaurant I have ever visited and I was looking forward to experiencing something new on my visit with my son Andrew.

We received a very warm welcome from Kewan, the owner of Little Paradise and restaurant manager Matin. We soon forgot all about the freezing weather outside as we relaxed in the comfortable surroundings and perused the menu. The menu has a wonderful choice of very reasonably-priced starters and mains, including a good selection of vegetarian dishes.

Matin served us with the 'Sini Mazeh Selection' to start with - five different dips including a wonderful combination of aubergines and onions in yoghurt and the more familiar Houmous made with mashed chick peas, garlic and lemon juice. The dips came with lovely Iranian bread called 'Lavash'.

The Persian main courses included kebabs, lamb and chicken dishes and traditional stews such as 'Koresht Bamieh', sliced lamb with okra cooked in tomato sauce and garlic served with rice (£7.50). We had an impressive Mixed Grill for two people (£22.99) with boneless marinated chicken, minced kebab and pieces of lamb served with rice and salad and grilled tomato.

When the dish was served it was a feast for the eyes and when we tucked in the meat was tender and beautifully flavoured.

Our Persian experience ended with superb pistachio ice cream with what I thought was desiccated coconut on top but was in fact Iranian noodles, flavoured with rose water, dreamy!

My first impression of Persian

Our sumptuous main course.

food is that it is beautifully flavoursome without being too spicy, but why not pop down to Croydon Road and try this exciting new restaurant yourself?

Whyteleaf FC

by Adam Wilmott

Leafe have only been able to play three matches in the last month with a number of fixtures postponed due to water-logged or frozen pitches. In their first game of 2013, Leafe travelled to Holmesdale in the Kent Premier League and secured a convincing 5-0 win, with five different goal scorers finding the net. Leafe then travelled to Welling to play Erith & Belvedere in the Kent League Cup. The home team emerged narrow 1-0 victors in a closely fought game, with the second leg being played at Church Road on Tuesday 29th January, with all still to play for. By the time you read this the match will have been played and the result can be viewed at our website, www.theleafe.co.uk The impressive unbeaten league run was then stretched to nine games, and four successive victories, in a home fixture against Sevenoaks Town. After Dos Santos opened the scoring on 37 minutes, another strong and committed team performance saw Leafe cruise to a comfortable 3-0 victory. Leafe now sit in third place, keeping the pressure on both Erith teams, just four points behind, but having played three games more. Leafe now face some tough fixtures through to the end of the season, with three matches still to play in the League against the Erith teams, with all of these matches being of vital importance. With the much improved form however, hopes still remain for the possibility of grabbing top spot and promotion back to the Ryman League at the first attempt. Forthcoming home fixtures are against Lordswood on the 9th February and Deal Town on the 2nd March, both 3pm kick-offs at Church Road.

Local football team says a big 'thank you' to local businesses

Members of the Caterham Pumas Under 15s are delighted to have the support of three local businesses this season, Park and Bailey Estate Agents, Bib & Tucker Dry Cleaners and Bollywood Indian restaurant who between them are sponsoring the team's home and away kits and coats.

Under 15s Coach, Kevin Savage, said: "Our relationship with Park and Bailey goes back many years and more recently we were very lucky to have Bib & Tucker and Bollywood come forward to help the team as well. It means a great deal because the club is run entirely by volunteers and every penny counts. It is great that local businesses are willing to help our youngsters this way and we would like to say 'thank you'." The Caterham Pumas are holding a fundraising Darts Competition on Sunday 17th February in Caterham-on-the-Hill. For more details see What's On on page 11.
